NEW ORLEANS AT ITS BEST

SEASON NEAR ITS CULMINATION, WITH AT-TENDANCE AND INTEREST GREAT.

Hyperion II. Defeats Pedro in a Capital Contest-Dandy Dancer Canters In-Topsy Robinson Scores-Pat Dunne Takes Two Races.

New Orleans, La., March 4.-A well-balanced program again attracted a big attendance to the Fair Grounds, many of the spectators being carnival visitors still in the city. Fine weather prevailed and the speculation was the sharpest in some time.

Hyperion II. won the feature race from Pedro and John Carroll. The Cella candidate was made the favorite at post time and justified the confidence by going into the lead soon after the start and remaining there throughout. The consistent Pedro made a game effort in the last furlong but tired slightly near the end and had to be ridden out to ond place from John Carroll. The showing of John Carroll today was a poor one, and the hard track was probably responsible for his poor per-formance. The time of the race, 1:39% for the mile. was the fastest of the season, and is within two-tifths of a second of the track record.

C. R. Ellison and his large following attempted coup in the sixth race with Earl's Court and failed, Hasty Agnes taking the purse with ease from Sam Taylor and The Thorn finishing in third place. Earl's Court did not appear to be anywhere near good racing form, and after going a fast quarter tired and finished far back in the ruck.

Dandy Dancer, which was accorded heavy support yesterday and barely failed to finish in the first three after a poor send-off and a stormy trip, made a runaway of the third race and was the easies winner of the afternoon.

Topsy Robinson was backed to the exclusion of everything in the second race and never left the result in doubt. McDaniel took her into a long lead on the stretch turn and she won cantering.

Miss Hapsburg finally managed to get away from the post in a forward position and, displaying superior speed, led a good band of youngsters to the finish in the opening race. Alamia, the favorite, would have been a dangerous contender, but was almost thrown soon after the start and Koerner eased her up when she had scant chance of finishing in the first three.

Redgauntlet, which was a starter in the Re-Handicap yesterday, was badly jumped on and cut down in the course of the running of the race and will be out of training for many months.

R. E. Watkins has shipped De Reszke to Texas where he will be mated with several of the mares now on Watkins' farm.

J. W. Fuller will not campaign any of his horses during the summer months, and at the close of rac ing here will send his entire string to Wills Point, Texas, where they will be turned out. The story sent out that Mr. Fuller's father had died yester-day was incorrect. Mr. Fuller, senior, died last January.

arrived today and will remain for some time. He is authority for the statement that Herman B. Duryea had recently offered Fred Burlew a big price for the crack three-year-old. Chapultepec. While Burlew has not absolutely refused to part with his colt, he would like to retain him until after the running of the Derbys here and for this reason the sale may not be made.

SCHREIBER'S RACING PLANS EXTENSIVE

Barney Schreiber has announced that in addition to the stable which Herman Brandt will train for him on the metropolitan tracks as usual, he will race a second string on the New York tracks in charge of David Henry, who has achieved excellent results for him at Oakland and on the tracks of the middle west during the last two seasons. soon as trainer of Schreiber's will be relieved string at Oakland by John Powers, who has bee handling the Missouri breeder's Santa Anita stable this winter. Henry will leave for Schreiber' breeding farm at Bridgeton, Mo., within the next fortnight to take up and train about thirty year-olds for the spring meetings in Kentucky, with the view of selecting the best of them for the extensive New York 'campaign that Schreiber is planning. Henry will take Deutschland with him for retirement to the stud at Woodlands Farm.

Schreiber's breeding operations have now reached the stage where he has many more horses than he can possibly train and race, and he will put in the summer travelling about between the various racing centers, disposing of any of his horses for which he can find buyers. He expects to remain on the coast until the close of the California racing season and will in the meantime endeavor to get rid of the horses he has in training there.

FORMER HOME OF ST. BLAISE SOLD.

Nashville, Tenn., March 4 .- The famous Fairview Farm in Sumner County, Tennessee, the former home of St. Blaise and Thora, has been sold by Charles Reed to a Nashville syndicate for $75,000. The 1,900 acres comprising the splendid estate will be cut up into small farms and disposed of by the new owners. Charles Reed will return to his old home in New York.

CAREER OF A GRAND RACER AND SIRE. Interesting Story of Persimmon's Rivalry with St. Frusquin as a Three-Year-Old.

Naturally the untimely death of King Edward's great sire, Persimmon, was much deplored in England and much space was given in turf publications descriptions of the horse and his career. of the best was that written by "Audax" in Horse and Hound of which the following is a part:

"It is with the most genuine regret that I record the death of Persimmon. Only last week news of his improvement came to me direct from the Sandringham Stud, but as he got better in health he more restless in the slings, and it was thought necessary to lower him so that his hoofs touched the ground. Presumably this set up an irritation in the polvis, which was fractured in two places and he died from exhaustion on Tuesday night. The injury due to plunging about and slipping whilst out at exercise originated on Decem-30, but did not show any serious development until some days later. Bred by His Majesty, and foaled April 15, 1893, Persimmon, a grand stamp of horse, a bay with black points, standing 16 hands 2 inches, was a fourth foal and by St. Simon, out of Perdita II., by Hampton. Tried to be very smart the week before the meeting in 1895, the son of St. Simon started for and easily won the Coventry Stakes at Ascot, and he was even better galloped before his next essay at Goodwood, doing so well with the three-year-old, Ugly, that his able trainer, Dick Marsh, considered him to be quite the son of Minting's equal at even weights; it must be remembered, though, that Ugly at that time was nothing like so good as he subsequently became. I may mention that Persimmon easily s cured his sussex engagement, this being the Richmond Stakes, but in his only other race that year, the Middle Park. Plate, he was very much off color from the effects of a cough, and could get no nearer than third to St. Frusquin and Omladina. His massive frame not coming to hand quickly in the spring of Persimmon was wisely not started for the 1896. Two Thousand, and came out first for the Derby. His old rival, St. Frusquin, which had won the first of the 'classics' from Love Wisely and others, was a hot favorite at 13 to 8, five's being freely offered against Persimmon; but after a beautiful race the latter, challenging just past the number board, got his neck in front of St. Frusquin a few strides further on, and won a trifle cleverly by that distance in the hands of John Watts, nothing else being near these two great sons of St. Simon, and they, much the best male representatives of this champion of champions, were begotten, by the way, during a season when St. Simon himself was in far from good health. The result produced the most extraordinary scene of excitement ever witnessed upon a race course and it can certainly never be xceeded, if even equalled. "After this the two famous rivals met to fight out the rubber at Newmarket in the then mile Princess of Wales' Stakes, the result being that St. Frusquin, receiving three pounds, won by half a length from Persimmon, the latter beating Regret, to which he was conceding twelve pounds, by a similar distance: but had this race been run over any course except the remarkably severe Bunbury Mile, the second would probably have won, as the wonderful hind leverage of St. Frusquin told greatly in his favor when climbing the steep hill, and although Persimmon finished the faster of the pair, he failed to make up the lost ground in time. Rivalry between the partisans of these great colts as to which would win the St. Leger rose very high, but St. Frusquin unfortunately gave way in training during August, and his racing career ending, Persimmon, although far from his best at Doucaster, had little to beat Labrador and others. He was much better trim when next seen out for the Jockey Club Stakes at Newmarket, and made a tre mendous example of the Derby and St. Leger winner. Sir Visto, and eight more, they including Laveno and Regret. The best day of Persimmon's life, nowever, was when he won the Ascot Cup the following year, and he simply treated Winkfield's Pride and Love Wisely as though they were backs in this race, but for all that felt the effects of it, and was nothing like the same horse when ending racing career a few weeks later by readily beating Velasquez and others for the Eclipse

"He was a very good-tempered horse, but hated being boxed, and gave great trouble at Dullingham Station when being dispatched to run for the Derby. Persimmon was ridden in all his races by John Watts, who several times told me that when at his best he had no doubt he was the greatest horse he ever rode. During Isis time on the turf the great brother to Diamend Jubilee and Florizel II. won $173,530 in stakes, besides $4,000 in place money; and in the spring of 1898 he began his stud career at Sandringham covering at a fee of 300 guineas Among the first of his get was Sceptre, sold for the world-record price of 10,000 guineas as a yearling to Mr. Sievier; and, except when failing to show her true form in the Derby, the famous filly won all the other 'classic' events of 1902. Others of note sired by Persimmon may be mentioned in Chats-Cheers, Colonia, Fugleman, Keystone II. Mead, Mountain Apple, Perrier, Persuasion, Plum enter, Plum Tree, Royal Dream, Royal Realm, Rushcutter and Zinfandel. Altogether fifty-six of his get have between 1901 and the end of 1907 won on the flat in the United Kingdom 146 races, worth $622,520, while one of his sons, Ouadi Halfa, has won some rich stakes in France."

COLONEL JACK SHOWS BRILLIANT SPEED. Defeats Veil and Magazine in the Handicap H. Wins in Fast Time.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 4.-Colonel Jack was at his best today and, showing brilliant speed throughout, simply played with Veil, the 2 to 1 favorite, which her owner backed heavily. This was the only prententious race of the day. The being filled with the poorer class of platers. The others Rudabek won the opening race after being brough to a hard drive in the closing strides to withstand the determined challenge of old Leash. The latter was practically left at the post, but closed a big gap in the stretch and finished fighting it out with the winner. Master Lester, the favorite, was off poorly, but closed an immense gap in the middle running and then tired.

The two-year-old race was not much more than a stiff gallop for Horace H., the winner. He dashed into a long lead right after the start, increased his advantage as the race progressed and won in a canter . Madrileno followed the winner closely to the stretch, where Bright Skies wore him down for second place.

Taylor George wore the pacemaking Money Muss down in the stretch and won the third race from Laudable and Chippewa.

Colonel Jack, showing improvement and running to his best form, set a fast pace in the handicar which featured the card and won cantering. He probably could have lowered the track record for the distance if he had been urged. Veil held second place throughout. Magazine received his final preparation for the Derby in the race and finished resolutely in a long stretch drive.

Ouardi followed Bragg to the stretch and then passing him, won cantering. The finish between the latter and Nadzu was close, while the others trailed far in the rear.

Jockey C. Ross was set down for ten days for cutting across in front of Money Muss with Taylor The cut-in today saw a falling off of two from the last draw-in, only twenty-one taking stands For the Los Angeles Derby, which will be run ext Saturday, Meelick is top weight with 127 pounds, while Stanley Fay will carry 120.

FUTURE GREATS ARRIVING IN KENTUCKY.

Lexington, Ky., March 4.-Two foals, a colt and a filly, arrived at Major T. J. Carson's Dixiana Stud The colt by Ben Strome-Blue Bells, by Kingfisher, is a full brother to Pasadena, while the filly is a full sister to Highball, winner of the last American Derby. There are now five colts and five

The broodmares Miss Ellie and Hatasoo are expected to foal tonight or tomorrow. There are already five Meddlers, three of them colts, at Kingston Stud and the two expected are also by that

The four-year-old filly, Miss Lida, by Ogden-Minnie Salesbary, which until recently was owne in partnership by A. D. Steele, of this city, and J. B. Smith, of Louisville, has been shipped to J. B. Respess at Louisville, Mr. Smith having purchased Steele's interest for $1,500. There is a chance that before very long she will go into the barn of Thomas Hitchcock, Jr. John E. Madden has written Mr. Hitchcock concerning her.

George Ott has entered the three-year-old filly. Lady Vie, by Griffon-Vie, for the Merchants' Selling Stakes at Latonia, and has already begun to pray for rain on that day. She is an excellent mud runner, but cannot raise a respectable gallon on a fast track. At least she could not last year. will be trained again this season by Walter Grater.

Dan T. Morris is expecting six two-year-olds belonging to Claude Thomas and two belonging to James Hukill to come up from Paris next week to be trained by him at the local track. For the first time in a half dozen years Johnny Miller, who attends to the shipping branch of Gar rett Wilson's business, came in from New York the first part of the week with an empty car.

WHAT THE TWO-YEAR-OLDS HAVE DONE

Cesarion Already Has Five Winners to His Credit and Leads in Number.

During the first two months of 1908 eighty-eight two-year-olds have won races on the four tracks, two at New Orleans, Santa Anita Park and Oakland They were the get of seventy different sires. The fast-breaking, speedy youngsters by Cesarion, Milton Young's sixteen-year-old stallion by Faustus-Cleopatra, are again responsible for giving him first place among the winning sires of two-year olds this year, as Mollie Montrose, Colonel Bob and Whisk Broom earned first place for him in the ame period last year. Aunt Aggie, the daughter of Mazagan-Aggie Marden, in winning four races including the Woodlands Stakes, is the greatest money winner and Paradise Queen, winner Santa Ana Stakes, is second in the list. Both of them have earned more than did E. M. Fry, which was the largest winner from eighty-nine which corresponding period last year. von during a Queen won all three races in which she started and arned more money than did the unbeaten Mollie Montrose last year in winning five races. Her vice tory in the Gunst Stakes at Oakland was the only stake won by the brown daughter of Kingston-White Rose. Sea Swell, accounted the best juvenile

YOUNG BROTHER OF FORMER CHAMPION OUT-RIDES WALTER MILLER AT OAKLAND.

Tom Shaw Wins from Burleigh in Consequence-Orphan Boy Scores Through a Bad Start-Favorites at a Discount-Mansard Goes Lame.

Oakland, Cal., March 4 .- At Oakland today, A. Dayton's Woodlands-bred three-year-old brown colt, Tom Shaw, decisively captured the principal race on the card, the San Gregorio Handicap at six furlongs from the receding favorite, Burleigh, despite the latter's advantage at the start, and the champion jockey's best and at times foul efforts to ward off defeat.

The Sierra Nevada Stable's promising midget apprentice rider, F. Hildebrand, a younger brother of the former champion jockey, displayed amazing olness and skill when pitted against his formidable rival, in anticipating Miller's attempt to shut him off and by a quick and successful move to the outside, secured the clear course necessary to enable Tom Shaw to score a comfortable and clean-cut victory at the end over his opponent.

Technically, not a single favorite made good during the afternoon, Warning, in the closing race, being the nearest approach to it, both All Ablaze and Bill Curtis being preferred to the uncertain Pre-vious horse until right at post time, when the market became active about him.

The best horse won in every race except in the ong-distance affair. The majority of the favorites that failed to materialize were of the ring-made variety. In Mansard's case the breakdown was anticipated and created no surprise. The flasco at the start enabled Orphan Boy to spreadeagle his opponents in the juvenile race. Doss' colt was supported at 10 to 1, although he had finished consistently in the rear in his recent three starts. Haves rode Kogo, the favorite, to defeat in the two-mile race, but nobody took this performance the hitherto honest and consistent Morte Fonse filly seriously.

The chilly and threatening weather had a deterrent effect on the attendance, which fell short of the 5,000 mark. Two books went off, thirty-eight handling the ring business.

President Thomas H. Williams' two Walter Miller and Clifford Gilbert, will ride respectively, Who, Salvage, Judge Nelson, Last Go and Smiley Corbett; Minnie Bright, Byron, Taunt, Massa, Be Thankful and Pajaroita in tomorrow's

JOCKEY CLUB MAKES GOOD PROPOSITION.

Suggests Plan for Restricting Betting that Makes Favorable Impression

New York, March 4.-Lovers of racing far outafternoon on the anti-gambling bills at Albany. addition to the New York contingent a delegation from the Business Men's Association of more than 100 and a large delegation from Poughkeepsie, with more than 200 delegates from various agricultural associations, made up a total representation of more than 400 opposed to the bill. reformers were not more than 150 strong. Ex-Governor Frank Black made a great speech on of reasonable regulation as against prohibition of things which may be weaknesses but are not crimes. He made a tremendous impression

The Jockey Club proposed to prohibit cash betting, saying, "we are of the view that the object may be attained by an appropriate enactment to the effect that no money could be used in the conduct of betting on the race track.

"The result, of course, would be a great restric-tion of betting." On this Joseph Auerbach, attorney for the Jockey Club, said: "Out of this consultation and the knowledge of the Jockey Club of the situation, it has proposed a practical plan to you which. although it will undoubtedly involve a large loss of revenue to the associations, will put racing on a basis where practically the slightest criticism cannot be visited against it, and furnishes the best evidence that the Jockey Club has not undertaken to measure duty against dollars, and it has undertaken with the racing associations, which have responded in a very high-spirited way by relinquishing their income in order that a desirable reform might be worked out. The reform consists of prohibiting the exchange of money on the race track in pursuance of the bet, This will take away the opportunity from the conspicuous bettor, big or small, to indulge in the practice to the extent that he is now able to carry it on.

It is believed this will be accepted by the antiracing people. The hearing was decidedly favorable

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

[Communications without names and addresses of senders will not be answered or noticed; nor will any answers be sent by mail.]

A. H. M., Chicago. Do not know his shade of T. F. C., Chicago. McNally's average price was 521 to 1. A. C., Toronto, Ont. The average of 12 to 1 and 25 to 1 is 181 to 1.

F. J. M., Chicago. Old style at City Park. New York style at the Fair Grounds F. A. V., Detroit, Mich. The bookkmaker is wrong. Fast includes good and the wager won. A. C. H., Chicago. Track prices do not follow rigid lines and are determined by the greater or esser aggregate of money bet.

Court House, Cincinnati. Thank you for information. We did not know such a condition existed. Will endeavor to have it stopped at once.

M. P. N., Port Huron, Mich. Catherine F. won six races in 1907. Post prices in order of their running were: 6 to 1, 2½ to 1, 3 to 1, 10 to 1, 3 to 1 and 21 to 1.

J. B. F., Chicago. There is no relation between betting at one track and another and no accounting for the vagaries of betting. The betting at each track was as printed.

P. F. T. L., Chicago. Although not the favorite at post time, Colonel White by virtue of being the favorite at the opening and in average, has a preponderance and as near as such a thing can be determined, was the actual favorite.

J. C. T., Nashville, Tenn. The backer of A would win his place bet. If a horse distances all others in a first heat bets are draws. If the distancing comes in the second heat, horse A is second under the present rules, but this was not the rule when the Washington Park race referred to was run.

Mitre broke slowly, but singled out in the last quarter into a cyclonic going, but belated, second. Alsatian, away badly, closed a big gap into a close up third. Went to post at 2:35. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same. Fulletta set the pace for the first mule, then dropped back and ran in close and persistent pursuit of the leaders in the last mile and drew out right at the end while bearing out sharply. Prince of Orange, after being reserved in the rear for a mile and a half, moved up with a challenge in the stretch and momentarily seemed the winner. Kogo, hard held and messed about throughout, finished an easy third with his jockey sitting still. Rotrou was pulled up at the end of a mile and a quarter. The winner, entered for $600, was bid up to $1,000 and bought by H. G. Bedwell.

Winner—B. c, by Sain—Belle Ward (trained by F. T. Hinkey).

Went to post at 3:03. At post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Tom Shaw, from a good inside start, ran within striking distance pursuit of the pacemakers, was shut of when attempting to come through on the inside in the stretch and forced to pull-up, but came around and made good finally and decisively. Burleigh beat the barrier and made the running to midway of the stretch, but tired badly in the closing strides. Silver Stocking, away poorly, closed up steadily into a fast going third and is extra good. Grace G., outpaced in the early running, finished well. Cadichon showed superior early speed and tired in the last quarter.

Winner—Ch. g, by Albert—Idlewild III. (trained by C. W. Chappell).
Went to post at 3:26. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Crystal Wave, after close and persistent pursuit of the pacemaker, drew out midway of the stretch, but just lasted the journey. Emma G., away poorly, closed up steadily into a cyclonic going second. Mansard, away flatfooted and shuffled back, quickly came along on the extreme outside of the stretch turn and inished fast, but failed to get up and pulled up lame. John H. Sheehan, from a flying start, set the face for five furlongs and tired. Elevation, well up early, dropped back on the turn and came again with a rush. Prince Brutus quit badly at the half. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Went to post at 3:55. At post 4 minutes. Start good. Won handily; second and third driving. Warning, from a striding start, quickly established a long and winning lead and held sway all the way. but possibly was lucky. Tancred, away very slowly, closed an immense gap into a fast going second and may have been best. Maxtress, from a flatfooted start, worked through a rough journey and made up fifteen lengths in the last half under a bad ride. Lone Wolf, shuffled to the rear early, closed an immense gap. Ed Davis, from a lucky start, ran in nearest pursuit for seven furlongs, but tired badly in the closing strides. All Ablaze and Bill Curtis both unexpectedly failed to stay and Bill Curtis pulled up lame. Jackfull showed early speed. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Winner—Blk. f, by Gallantry—Sararose (walned by A. C. Bellew).

Went to post at 3:27. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Dandy Dancer, much the best, was away fast, showed much the most speed all the way and won cantering. Blue Lee was a forward contender from the start and ran a good race, but was not good enough to beat the winner. Sabado, always prominent in the running, stood the final drive gamely. Task Master, away in a tangle, closed considerable ground in the last quarter. Gratiot lacked early speed. Bewitched ran fairly well. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.

Overweights—Ed Kane, 1 pound; Wausau, 3; Water Lock, 3½; Virginia Maid, 2; Billy Starr, 2.

Winner—B. g, by Mazagan—Van-d-Clar (trained by E. Stubbs), Went to post at 3:50. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving; second and third the same.
Hyperion II., away in a tangle, saved ground on the first turn and, showing superior speed, took a long lead and, standing the final drive gamely, shook off Pedro in the last sixteentb. The latter ran a good race and challenged resolutely in the last furlong. John Carroll, hard ridden all the way, falled to respond with his customary rush in the stretch. First Premium was a good horse today and suffered from a poor ride and interference.

Overweights—John Carroll, 1 pound.

Winner—B. f, by Hastings—St. Agnes (trained by L. Marion).

Went to post at 4:43. At post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Hasty Agnes, away in a tangle, but recovering quickly, was restrained for the first half, then moved up with a rush on the stretch turn and, taking a long lead, won as her rider pleased. Sam Taylor, shuffled back at the half-mile ground, came fast in the stretch. The Thorn, from a slow beginning, came with a rush through the stretch and outstayed La Souer. The latter showed improved form. Land Breeze came from a long way back in the last quarter. Rural Boy was knocked out of any chance at the start. Earl's Court ran as if short. Contanna showed a high order of early speed.
